

Salve Regina University

Digital Commons @ Salve Regina

Newsbulletin

Archives and Special Collections

3-27-1986

Newsbulletin vol. 16, no. 13

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 16, no. 13" (1986). Newsbulletin. 371.
<https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/371>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 16 No. 13

ARCHIVES

March 27, 1986

McKILLOP

gallery

SALVE ART DEPARTMENT EXHIBITS
TO BE EYED BY NASAD TEAM

The Art Department at Salve Regina is featuring two exhibitions in conjunction with its application for membership to the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD).

An Art Student Exhibition is being held in the College's McKillop Gallery from Wednesday, March 26 through Friday, April 11. The show will include work of beginning through advanced students in ceramics, design, drawing, graphics, painting and photography.

Faculty members from Salve Regina's Art Department are exhibiting their work at the Newport Art Museum's Cushing Gallery from Wednesday, March 26 through Sunday, April 20. Exhibitors will include Richard Carbotti, environmental concepts; Cal Chrupcala, drawings; Belinda Gabryl and Jay Lacouture, ceramics; Page Laughlin, paintings; Angelo Marinosci, illustrations and Sister Arlene Woods, mixed media. An artists' reception will be held at the Cushing Gallery, 76 Bellevue Avenue, on Thursday, April 10 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday and 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.

A NASAD accreditation team will be on the Salve Regina campus from April 9 through the 11th. NASAD is the only art accrediting organization for higher education in the country.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SALVE TO FEATURE WALL STREET JOURNAL REPORTER IN O'HARE LECTURE SERIES

Salve Regina's O'Hare Lecture Series will feature "Wall Street Journal" reporter Jonathan Kwitny on Tuesday, April 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the O'Hare auditorium. His topic will be "Lies: The Government, The Press and Foreign Policy."

Kwitny is based in the "Wall Street Journal's" New York bureau where he writes front-page features on numerous subjects in the U.S. and abroad. He has lived or traveled in over 90 countries and has been published in several national magazines including "Harpers," "Atlantic," "Esquire," "The New Republic," "The Nation" and "Mother Jones." Kwitny has also written five books which include, "Endless Enemies: The Making of an Unfriendly World," a 1985 runner-up for the Pulitzer Prize in general nonfiction.

The O'Hare lectures are free and open to the public. For further information contact Sister Esther Whalen at extension 418.

* * *

SALVE'S "NOON CONCERT SERIES" TO FEATURE JAZZ PIANIST MAC CHRUPCALA

Salve Regina's "Noon Concert Series" will feature jazz pianist Mac Chrupcala on Wednesday, April 2.

Chrupcala has been a frequent guest artist for the Newport Friends of Jazz Series and has been a featured performer at the Newport Jazz Festival, the Woods Hole Music Festival, the Rehoboth Music Festival, Brown University, Berklee College of Music, Bryant College, Holy Cross College, Southeastern Massachusetts University and Brandeis University. In addition, Chrupcala has been active as a composer and lecturer and has served for the past 14 years as supervisor of music for the Newport Public Schools.

In 1982, Chrupcala released his debut album, "It's About Time," and is currently on the Rhode Island State Touring Program. He has studied with Jacki Byard as part of the Afro-American graduate program at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston and holds music degrees from the University of Lowell and the University of Rhode Island. He presently resides in Newport.

NOON CONCERT (continued)

Salve Regina's "Noon Concert Series" will take place at Cecilia Hall, located in Carey Mansion. The one-hour concert is free and open to the public. Patrons are invited to bring a lunch. For further information contact the Music Department at extension 445.

* * *

SPRING VISITATION DAYS

The Admissions Office has scheduled "Spring Visitation Days" on April 2, 3 and 4. Students who have been accepted for the Fall '86 semester are invited, along with their families, to learn more about the College.

The purpose of "Spring Visitation Days" is to reinforce the special qualities and opportunities that a student will find at Salve. Prospective students are encouraged to explore the campus, learn more about academic offerings, educational support services, and College organizations.

To learn more about the program contact the Admissions Office at extension 233.

* * *

ATTENTION SENIORS!!

"Recruiting Days" will take place on campus from Wednesday, April 2 through Friday, April 17. Students interested in interviews must sign up in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Miley Hall, by Thursday, March 27. Be sure to bring your resume.

Organizations represented will include: Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Naval Investigative Service Resident Agency, Diocesan Vocation Office, Systems Resource Management, Inc., Blue Cross & Blue Shield of R.I., United States Army Nurse Corps and Adams Drug Company, Inc.

For further information and a complete list of organizations, dates and times, contact the Career Planning and Placement Office at extension 417.

* * *

Deadline for the next NEWSBULLETIN is Friday, April 4. Publication date is Thursday, April 10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS (continued)

FIRST ANNUAL WINTER SPORTS AWARDS CEREMONY

On Friday, April 4 at 7:00 p.m. in Ochre Court, the Athletic Department will hold the First Annual Winter Sports Awards Ceremony. Players from the men's and women's basketball team and the indoor track and field team will be honored at that time.

* * *

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE THEATRE COMPANY TO PRESENT
"THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE"

The Newport College Theatre Company will present "The Time of Your Life" on April 10, 11 and 12 at 8:00 p.m., April 18 and 19 at 8:30 p.m. and April 20 at 3:00 p.m. The performances will take place in the Megley Theatre located in Mercy Hall.

Starring in the production are Chris Doubek, James DiZazzo, Megan McLoughlin, Fred Villari and Christopher Moriarty. Directing will be Gary Diomandes assisted by Betty Hutton.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students and senior citizens. They may be purchased at the Box Office in Mercy Hall from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, beginning April 1. For further information contact the Theatre Department at extension 463.

* * *

CHINA CONFERENCE

On Saturday, April 12, Salve Regina College and the Newport Institute will present a conference on the topic: "Mainland China's New Course: Significance for the U.S., Japan and the USSR." Scheduled to speak at the conference are four experts on China. They are Dr. Frank Jen, SUNY College at Buffalo; Dr. G. Paul Holman, Naval War College; Dr. Glen Kumakawa, University of Rhode Island; and Dr. Richard Buczynski, Wharton Asian Economic Service, Washington, D.C.

The conference will be held in the O'Hare Auditorium from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. An advance registration fee of $25.00 per person (or $40 per couple) will cover coffee and lunch. Registration at the door is $30 per person. For further information contact Dr. Heath Twichell, Director of the Trimester Graduate Program, at extension 396.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS (continued)

SALVE RECEIVES GRANT FROM SEARS-ROEBUCK FOUNDATION

Salve Regina College has received a $1,400 grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. The award is part of unrestricted grants totaling $18,800 which are being distributed to six privately supported colleges and universities in Rhode Island.

The Rhode Island colleges and universities are among 956 private, accredited, two- and four-year institutions across the country which are sharing in $1,750,000 in Sears Foundation funds for the 1985-86 academic year. The funds may be used as Salve Regina deems necessary.

* * *

FILM ON HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS TO PREMIERE AT SALVE

Rhode Island Filmmakers announce the premiere of a one-hour documentary film, "Here We Live Again," to be shown in Salve Regina's O'Hare Academic Center on Sunday, April 6 at 4:00 p.m. The film is a group portrait and study of the quest of Holocaust Survivors of Rhode Island to create a memorial archive.

The showing is free and open to the public and was funded by a grant from the R.I. Committee for the Humanities with additional support from the R.I. Foundation and the Jewish Federation of R.I. The film was co-directed by Peter O'Neill and Michael Fink, RISD faculty members.

A book of essays and letters will be distributed at the screening, featuring responses to the film by local professors, including transcripts from the interviews, personal photos, and current portraits of the survivors. A panel discussion will follow.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Sister M. Therese Antone, Vice President for Institutional Advancement, has been selected as a committee member on the Executive Board for Brown University's Institute for Secondary Education.

Sister Therese will join other committee members to accomplish the Institute's basic purposes. These include providing in-service programs for secondary teachers in collaboration with Brown faculty. The Institute also hopes to create a forum for teachers and school administrators within which lecture series, curriculum demonstrations or joint research projects can be scheduled. Lastly, it will connect local interests with national efforts at fundamental school reform.

SISTER M. THERESE ANTONE (continued)

* * *

Dr. James Hersh, Professor of Philosophy, has had another article accepted by the German journal of psychology, "Gorgo." The article is entitled "Hitler's Trick: Enthroning the Erinyes in Germany" and will be published this spring. Dr. Jorn Zeuge, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, will translate the article into German.

* * *

Dr. Alice Tesch Graham, Assistant Professor of Special Education, recently participated in a one-day conference sponsored by the Massachusetts Urban Project. Representatives from special education training programs in Rhode Island and Massachusetts met with special education directors from urban school districts in Massachusetts. Training programs and staffing needs and concerns were discussed.

* * *

Several members of the Student Affairs Staff, Mary-Kay Connell, Director of Health Services, Sister Consilii Reynolds, Director of Off-Campus Students, and Dorothy Hillman, Director of Housing, recently attended a conference at Rhode Island College sponsored by the College Personnel Association of Rhode Island. The conference dealt with the issue of AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) and the need for colleges to prepare for possible occurrences of the disease on campus.

Along with Margaret Leonard, Assistant Director of Health Services and Dr. Terence Mulvany, these professional staff members are involved in developing a college policy statement and educational program for the College community.

* * *

Four members of the Student Affairs Staff, Margaret Leonard, Health Services, Susan Rose, Residence Life Office, David Moske, Director of College Activities and Lynn Sheedy, Assistant to the Dean of Students, recently attended a national conference on student affairs held at the University of Connecticut. The conference offered over 50 workshops on issues relating to college students, their health, activities, retention, residential living, intellectual and moral development and career choices.

* * *